

I am extremely distressed that Sinclair Broadcasting has announced plans to force affiliates to air a blatantly dishonest, right wing propaganda attack on a presidential candidate days before the election.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest, and the FCC is obligated to hold Sinclair to that clear and simple standard. If not, Sinclair's license to use the public airwaves must be revoked.

John Drzal
Chico, CA